THE AIR FULL OF FIGHTS AND OF STARTLING RUMORS OF FUTURE WARFARE.

DISCUSSIONS AMONG THE MEMBERS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE-OFFICERS OF THE

TRACK AT ODDS -" THE HERALD'S" ACCOUNT OF CERTAIN HOSTIL-TIES-RAMAPO WON THE

Racing at Monmouth Park has a rough and stormy career. Its course is fretted by many jars and much friction. If we may believe a striking article published in "The New-York Herald" resterday (and "The Herald" is well known to be faithful and accurate as well as brilliant in its re-ports of racing affairs), the two partners in one of the most conspicuous, influential and celebrated recing stables in America had a grievous failing out in the paddock at Monmouth Park on Monday It seems almost incredible that David Gideon and John Daly, two of the most peaceable, good-natured and benevolent of turfmen who can be discovered by patient search throughout the grounds of Mon th Park, should ever engage in a quarrel. Yet "The Herald" says that they did have a heated and bitter quarrel and almost came to blows.

It must be that some peculiar poisen in the air at conmouth Park this season irritates and inflames the passions of people who are usually amiable and Who could have imagined a few months ago that John A. Morris, whose heart has full of love for his fellow-men since his childhood that he built up a huge institution at Newseans, intended to relieve them of the worry and anxiety of caring for their property-who could have imagined that the philanthropic Mr. Merris could become so embittered and envenomed in a short time that he would pursue newspaper writers with relentless enmity because they did not write articles which pleased him? Who could have thought it possible that the meek, sympathetic and tenger-souled Alfred F. Walcott could be excited to a similar fury of hostility against turf writers?
Philip J. Dwyer has had good fortune enough in his career to feel at peace with all mankind, and to refuse to take any part in a warfare against the press. Michael F. Dwyer is a plunger, and eught to reditate serenciy over his big bets and not be stirring up strife against the newspapers. Lucien O. ought to be grateful to every newspaper in New-York. The newspapers were not continually urging the police to sack and pillage Mr. Appleby's notorious faro-bank at No. 818 Broadway in the many years during which Mr. Appleby suavely and graciously guarded the gates of that fardepository for the funds of the victims of fare and roulette. The newspapers of New-York quietly ignored Mr. Appleby and his game during most of the time when he managed 818 and let him severely alone. They could have made him very omfortable by giving him too much publicity, but they raised no clamorous and ceaseless outcry against 818, and the New-York police, who were very fond of Mr. Appleby, since he was known to be a munificent contributor for the benefit of needy members of the police force, left him undisturbed

QUARRELS AT MONMOUTH. agreeable limit, and made really find talk at Monmouth PARTNERS TWO YEARS.

It is two years since "Dave" Gideon, ex-Assemblyman, ex-bookmaker and horse owner, with a barrel of money, and John Daiy, gambler, with a gambling house at Long Branch and one in New-York, struck hands as a racehors They have made many a fair winning since then. and nobody ever heard, so far as I know, of a harsh word passing between them. But accidents and other things will happen in the best regulated families. And in a race track family anything that savors of the "double cross" is executive parlon for a fight. parion for a fight.

's the state of the case: On Wednesday last Gideon & Daly's jockey, Overton, rode "Dave" Puls Oldeon & Daly's jockey, Overton, rode "Dave" Pulsifor's four-year-old Wah Jim. It was in the opening scramble, a handleap which in its field of ten included such sprinters as Correction, Sirocco, Wah Jim and Derfargilla. Correction was favorite at 3 to 1. Sirocco and Wah Jim were next in call. Correction jumped away directly the dag fell and won with ease by two lengths. Sirocco was second, two lengths before Lakeview. Wah Jim wasn't

Both members of the firm had bet a pretty bundle again. Again Overton was up. Gideon & Daiy had Cactus entered the race. But Cactus was never heard of from start to finish. Wah Jim, the heast that threw Gideon & Daly firm down on Wednesday, won all the

But on the strength of Wah Jim's previous failure Daly, gambler, bet on Cactus, thinking he had a chance with the best of them. He discovered afterward that his legislative partner had a gentleman's bet down on Wah Jim at a comfertable price and landed it, for the colt was in front from flag to finish.

There was no setting away from that proposition.

Daly and Gidson met in the paddock shortly after the race and had a hot talk. The few folks who heard the altereation kent prudent silence about it. But this much was learned, that there were words, hard words, back and forth, and words were growing to blows when John Kelly. who happened to come through the gate in time to see the fuss, stepped between the partners, and with his smile and making peace between the partners.

Then everybody made haste to keep still about the Then everybody made haste to geep still about the whole matter. It's always so on racetracks.

From the men who came back from the track last night it was impossible to learn that there had been any rupture at all between the discordant ends of the firm of Gideon & at all between the discordant ends of the firm of Gideon & Daly. But I inquired among racing people at Long Franch last night and had verification of the stery. It was the one theme of gossip at the dinner tables at Hellywood and West End. Bystanders who heard the beginning of the controversy, but who said they were not able to catch the hearty, explosive dialogue, had assiduously spread the stery of the respective dialogue, had assiduously spread the story of the rencontre. All Long Branch knew abo it last night and talked about it.

Gideon, it was commonly reported, had been persuaded by Jockev Overton that Wah Jim would win and he bet on the horse. Daly has sustained many heavy losses during the season. One hundred thousand dollars will sourcely cover his losings.

RAMAPO'S VICTORY IN THE OMNIBUS STAKES. The attendance at Monmouth Park yesterday was not far above the average, and was not half what the management expected. The rich Omnibus Stakes, to which the association added $10,000, was down for decision, and it was thought that a meeting between Sir Walter, St. Leonards, Ramapo, Sir Francis, Comanche and Plutus would prove a magnet of immense drawing power. So it would at any other track, but the racing public is tired of the manner in which things have been carried on during the present meeting, and no in ducement will bring the multitudes of better gracefully retired. Sir Francis meemed for a time to be winning, as he was the last of the leaders to feel the cut of the whip, but when Garrison did use it the colt fa'led to respond, and he was soon back in the ruck. All this to respond, and he was soon back in the rice. All this time Sir Walter had been improving his position. Op-posite the lower end of the club-stand it looked as if he would win, but the others closed in front of him, cutting him off and killing what chance he might have had. Half a furiong from the end it had narrowed down to a fight a furioug from the end it had narrowed down to a fight between St. Leonards, Commiche and Ramapo, and Ramapo proved the best. He was the rich prize by a length: St. Leonards second, a neck before Commiche. Si: Wal-ter, Sir Francis and Plotus followed in the order named.

YONKERS.

The city is as far away from having a site for a smallpox hospital as ever. The special committee Common Council appointed to select a site reported in favor of the lots in Bellevue-ave, last evening, but the Common Council rejected the re-port by a vote of 3 to 7, and the same committee, with two Aldermen added, was appointed to find another site and report at the next meeting. . . . There is a conflict of authority in which the Board has the advantage. Some time ago the Common Council recommended that a drinking fountain be erected on Nodine Hill. The Water Board refused to order the erection of the fountain. To add to the trouble, the Water Board a few days ago shut off the water from one of the principal drink-ing fountains, and now the Common Council wants to have the control of the public fountains given to the Commissioner of Public Works, . . . At last Yonkers has a fire district. The ordinance has been unanimously passed by the Common Council and signed by the Mayor, The district extends from Ashburton-ave, to Herriot-st., and from the river to Nepperhan-ave, and New-Main-st., taking in both sides of the boundary streets. This district in

The supposed kidnapping of little Alice Molenaor now seems to have been a joke. The child, who is three years old, was playing in the street, when Mrs. R. B. Ryan, wife of Undertaker Ryan, came along, and believing that the child was that of eter Paulding, thought she would take it home as joke. When she discovered her mistake she left Alice in the street. Mrs. Ryan is one of the lead ng singers in the choir of the Methodist Church and an intimate friend of the Pauldings. Recently and an intimate friend of the Pauldings. Recently the two families hay been playing practical jokes on each other, and Mrs. Ryan, wanting to get even, thought it would be fun to give her friends and neighbors a scare. Mrs. Ryan is a prominent worker in the Ladies' All Society. She is not known by the Molenoars. Yesterday morning Chief of Police Bogart investigated the matter. Mrs.
Ryan explained her actions and apologized to the chid's mother and the matter was settled without any ill feeling.

AFFAIRS IN BROOKLYN.

TO DISCUSS THE QUESTION OF RESUMPTION. The directors of the Commercial Bank will hold a meeting to-day and discuss the question of resuming the business of the bank. Bank Examiner Preston is hard at work getting at the real losses of the bank and its exact financial condition. His report may be ready to-day or to-morrow. At the time C. F. Hassell gave his collateral to the bank which was stock in the St. Kevirs mine, in Colorado, it was regarded as good property. It is believed that not a cent of the bank's money went into this mine.

WILLIAM E. SHIELDS TO BE BURIED TO-DAY The funeral of William E. Shields will take place this afternoon, at 2 o'clock, from his home, No. 355 Humboldt-st. The burial will be in Calvary Ceme Humboldt-st. The burial will be in Calvary Cemetery, where the Rev. Father Mulhane will officiate. Delegations from the Live Oak Council, American Legion of Honor, Home Club, John Ennis Democratic Club will attend. The following men will be pailbearers: Ex-Assemblyman Charles Sutherland, Assemblymen Southwalte and Drypolcher, and Messrs. Schultz, Betts and Wandless.

THEIR MARRIAGE KEPT A SECRET.
